

Physician Licensing, Staffing and Contract Disputes

Kerr Russell has proudly served the medical community since the 1940s, and is a recognized leader in health care law statewide.

We represent state and local medical and dental associations, and health care systems, hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers, clinics, and other health care facilities, physicians and physician groups, and a wide variety of health care practitioners in a broad range of administrative and regulatory compliance matters, including:

- Licensing, certification and accreditation
- Medical staff relationships (bylaws, policies, hearing and credentialing plans)
- Board governance, including board responsibilities and policies
- Tax-exempt status
- HIPAA compliance
- Medicare/Medicaid reimbursement
- Fraud and abuse/Stark law
- Self-referral
- Medical records
- Privacy and security
- Antitrust
- Certificates of need
- Environmental compliance
- Employment and benefits

Our attorneys also provide proactive, sophisticated counsel to help health care clients develop and institute compliance programs and policies that satisfy regulatory demands. We represent health care clients in fraud and government investigations, audits, voluntary disclosure and overpayment matters, and in civil and criminal cases involving allegations of white collar crime.
